NEWS FROM NANCY

Hello Redemption Ranch friends! I sit here this cold February day anticipating warmer weather and days filled with more hours of sunlight. Yet, even in the long days of winter there is pure beauty. The other day snow slowly drifted down and landed peacefully on the backs of the horses. When I went into the pen to check on all of them, I saw the beauty of snowflakes quietly nestled in their hair. The intricate detail of the snowflake was able to be seen that day. Sometimes when snow falls like balls of fluff, the actual details in the snowflake itself are hard to see. This particular day--the snowflakes each had a dynamic shape and the detail of each snowflake was distinctly unique. I revel in the uniqueness that Spark of Faith Camp season has upon us. Putting together the details for Camps, is what we are gearing up for these cold months. Gathering together the upcoming schedules based on times that mentors are available. God is opening the doors for new times and contacts, and we are excited to see the fruit grow for what He has opened. We have several new: mentors, volunteers, and wranglers joining our team this year.

Thankful for the indoor arena, we are getting horses ready with the help of: Makayla, Annika, and Julian. They have been busy coming and going this winter-- helping get horses worked and learning new things.

We have been gifted with time to share about Redemption Ranch to several local businesses, churches, and organizations. We are grateful for each opportunity the Lord opens for us to share of HIS goodness and grace. Some recent events added to our schedule have been: Redwood Area LINC, Living Word Church, Wabasso FCA, and Fortitude Podcast. We are truly grateful for support from so many organizations.

As the beauty of each snowflake in its intricate detail can be seen....So too do we marvel at God's intricate guidance each step of our way. My WORD for 2025 is STEADFAST. The ultimate example of the person of Steadfastness is, Jesus. He is STEADFAST in His love and pursuit of us. Our instructions in 1 Corinthians 15:58 "Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord."

We look forward to fanning the flame of God's love as we embrace 2025 Spark of Faith Camps. We revisit Isaiah 58 and our mission to restore, rebuild, repair, and redeem lives for Jesus.

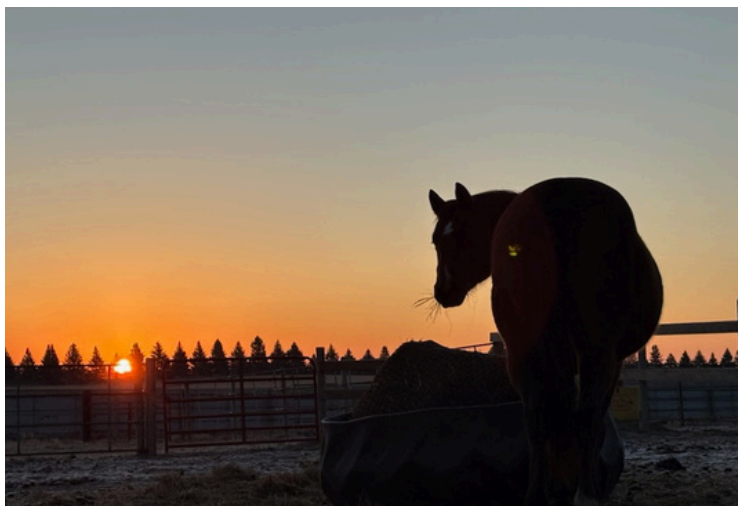

Our official camp schedule will be available on the website and Facebook early spring. Registration will open April 1st. If you are interested in volunteering, mentoring, sponsoring, or donating, please reach out to via our email or call/text 605-695-7366 for more information.
